REMARKS

A Notification of Missing Requirements” has issued on December 23, 2005 in the above-identified application. The Notification of Missing Requirements indicates that the translation of the application into English is defective because “There are 14 drawings in the original international application, but there are 16 drawings in the translation of the international application.”

While the number of Drawing Sheets in the English translation differs from the number of Drawing Sheets contained in the original international application, the Figures contained in such sheets are identical. That is, the original international application and the English translation contains the same number of Figures (1-23). However, some of the Figures in the English translation are shown on separate sheets. Those same Figures were shown on the same sheets in the international application.

Specifically, the following is a breakdown of the Figures of the international application and English translation and corresponding drawing sheet. As is readily evident, the international application and English translation contain the same Figures, although the pagination of the drawing sheets is slightly different.

International Application		English Translation
Sheet	Figure(s)	Sheet	Figure(s)
1	1	1	1
2	2, 3, 4	2	2
3	5, 6	3	3, 4
4	7, 8	4	5, 6
5	9, 10	5	7, 8
6	11	6	9
7	12	7	10
8	13	8	11
9	14	9	12
10	15, 16	10	13
11	17, 18	11	14
12	19	12	15, 16
13	20, 21, 22	13	17, 18
14	23	14	19
		15	20, 21, 22
		16	23

Thus, as is clearly evident, each of the international application and English translation contain Figures 1-23. Therefore, the Applicant respectfully submits that the English translation is not defective and that the Notification of Missing requirements has been issued in error and respectfully requests withdrawal thereof. Because such Notification of Missing Requirements has issued in error, no fee is being submitted herewith.

In view of the above, early and favorable examination of the present application are respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas Spinelli
